

An audit was carried out on Falcon gas pipe lines within Ikorodu environment. The exercise was to ascertain that the route of distance supplied as requested corresponds with what was covered and permit granted to them. During the audit exercise, it was discovered that the distance applied by FALCON gas was exhausted and that they extended their gas pipe to supply some companies within the environs of which there is no record of such application in LASIMRA.

Actions are being taken to rectify this outcome.