

There has been a growing concern in Lagos State about the state of infrastructure management. There have been various issues raised by stakeholders and even the Lagos State government. Some of these issues bother on quality of infrastructure maintenance, public safety and of course adherence to and maintenance of global standards.

The Lagos State Infrastructure Maintenance and Regulatory Agency (LASIMRA) has restructured its internal structure, strengthening key Units in order to be able to meet the challenges of infrastructure management in the State.